BACK-TO-BACK-TO-BACK-TO-BACK-TO-BACK HOME RUNS

Kansas tied an NCAA record with five consecutive home runs in the third inning at Minnesota on March 12. It was the fourth occasion in NCAA Division I history, and the first by a Big 12 program, that a team has done so, with the last being South Carolina at Georgia in 2006. The five home runs marked a new program record for the most home runs in an inning.

Kansas beat Minnesota 29-1 in seven innings that day at U.S. Bank Stadium, home of the Minnesota Vikings. The 29 runs were the most all-time against a Division I opponent and the most ever in a road game. The last time Kansas scored that many runs in a game was March 16, 1993 vs. Northwest Missouri State (36 runs). The 28-run margin of victory was the largest ever by Kansas against a Division I opponent and the largest since March 16, 1993 vs. Northwest Missouri State (W, 36-2).

POSTSEASON HISTORY

1993 AT A GLANCE

Led by All-Americans Jeff Berblinger, Jeff Niemeier and Jimmy Walker, the Jayhawks rebounded from an opening round loss to Fresno State in the Mideast Regional to advance to the College World Series for the first time in school history.

Facing an early exit, KU squared off with host Tennessee in its second game. Freshman Jamie Splittorff pitched 8 1/3 innings of four-hit baseball to earn a 3-2 win. Pitching and a powerful offense proved to be the difference as KU ran through the Losers' Bracket, eliminating Rutgers (8-2) and Clemson (9-1) to set up a rematch with Fresno State and a trip to the College World Series on the line.

Forced with a dilemma of having four starting pitchers who had all thrown deep in the previous games, head coach Dave Bingham turned to the man he had turned to all season when the Jayhawks needed to get outs, senior relief pitcher Jimmy Walker.

Walker had started just three games prior to the Mideast Regional Championship. Walker went toe-to-toe with Bulldog hurlers Scott Soderstrom and Mike Salazar in a classic pitcher's dual.

KU trailed 2-1 with one out in the ninth when Berblinger tripled. One out later, Josh Igou beat out an infield single to score Berblinger and send the game to extra innings.

The Jayhawks scored the winning run in the 10th on Darryl Monroe's RBI ground ball deep in the hole at short.

KU entered the 1993 College World Series with a 45-16 record before losing two hard-fought contests to Texas A&M and Long Beach State. Louisiana State ended up winning the national championship with an 8-0 win over Wichita State in the final game.

KU ended its magnificent campaign with a 45-18 record, best in school history. The NCAA bid was the first ever for the program, and Kansas became just the second team to advance to the College World Series in its first trip to the NCAAs.

"This is what we set out for when we came in," senior pitcher David Soult said. "We set the standard for future players to build on."

1994 AT A GLANCE

What is a program to do after it sets a school record for victories, plays in its first-ever NCAA regional and advances to the College World Series?

Dave Bingham's Kansas Jayhawks did all of the above in 1993. His goal for 1994 was to prove that KU's success was no mere coincidence.

While Kansas did not return to the College World Series, and it did not win 45 games for a second-consecutive season, it proved beyond a shadow of doubt that what took place in 1993 was no fluke.

KU finished 40-18 on the campaign and advanced to the NCAA Atlantic II Regional in Tallahassee, Florida, In the process, the Jayhawks went 9-8 against teams that advanced to NCAA play and were ranked among the top-25 teams in the nation in all three major college baseball polls.

"I felt like the quality of baseball continued to progress," Bingham said. "We were more consistent and I felt like we knew how to win more."

The Jayhawks proved the ability to win the close game more than once. In fact, the team won home games in its final at bat five different times in 1994. The team also erased deficits of eight runs (vs. Iowa State) and nine runs (vs. UNLV).

Kansas also reeled off 14-consecutive victories during the month of March, which still stands as a school record.

Despite the inevitable peaks and valleys that every team endures over the course of a season, the Jayhawks managed to ride that early-season momentum to a 17-9 record in the Big Eight Conference. That was good enough for a third-place finish and a Big Eight Tournament date. After downing Iowa State 10-2, KU proceeded to drop its next two games to Nebraska and Oklahoma State.

However, the team was rewarded for its strong play throughout the season with a No. 3 seed in the Atlantic II Regional.

KU dropped its NCAA opener for the second-consecutive year – this time a 7-2 setback to Jacksonville.

Facing elimination, the Jayhawks upended top-seeded Ohio State, 20-6, on the tournament's second day and appeared as though they may be prepared to make a move again.

However, Brigham Young put an end to that thinking with an 8-3 win to eliminate Kansas.

2006 AT A GLANCE

Heading into the 2006 season, the University of Kansas baseball team was loaded with seven returning starters, two starting pitchers, closer Don Czyz and greeted with high expectations. It's safe to say in his fourth season at the helm of the Kansas program, head coach Ritch Price met those expectations head on and moved the Jayhawks into uncharted territory.

Playing one of the toughest schedules in the country, Kansas rattled off a 43-25 record to garner the second-most victories in program history. After winning KU's first Big 12 Championship in Oklahoma City, the Jayhawks earned a trip to the NCAA Tournament for the first time since 1994.

After finishing the regular season in a tie for fifth place in the Big 12 – KU's highest finish in the 10 years of the conference – the Jayhawks entered the Phillips 66 Championship as the No. 6 seed. Kansas proceeded to grab the attention of the college baseball world by knocking off four-straight perennial powers to win the Big 12 Championship.

In game one of the Championship, Kodiak Quick picked up a school-record 11th win of the season to lead KU past No. 13 Oklahoma, 7-2. After a day off, KU used five sixth-inning runs to break a 5-5 tie and cruise past No. 12 Oklahoma State, 11-6, to set up a Border Showdown with Missouri for the right to advance to the championship game. After jumping out to a 3-0 lead, KU needed an eighth-inning run to defeat the Tigers, 4-3, and move on to face No. 14 Nebraska.

Freshman Nick Czyz picked up the victory, while older brother Don Czyz earned the save in leading the Jayhawks to a 9-6 win over the Cornhuskers.

KU never trailed during its four-game run at the Big 12 Championship to earn an automatic bid to the NCAA Tournament where the Jayhawks tallied a victory over No. 25 Hawaii before dropping games to No. 4 and host Oregon State and then Hawaii to conclude the season.

2009 AT A GLANCE

Picked to finish last in the Big 12 in the conference's preseason coaches' poll, the Kansas Jayhawks shocked everybody, and enjoyed a magical season. Under the leadership of veteran head coach Ritch Price, KU earned upset wins over No. 21 Arkansas and No. 4 Arizona State during the early weeks of the season, but that was just the beginning. Price's team drew national attention during the first weekend of conference play, sweeping top-ranked Texas in a three-game series at Hoglund Ballpark.

The Jayhawks rode the momentum throughout the rest of the season to their first Big 12 Baseball Championship and NCAA Tournament appearances since 2006. While the team eventually fell to College World Series participant North Carolina in the championship round of the Chapel Hill Region, the team could look back on its accomplishments with pride.

KU finished the season at 39-24, and went 15-12 in Big 12 play – the most conference wins by a Jayhawk team since 1994 when it was a member of the Big Eight Conference. The team swept three-game series from two ranked teams (No. 1 Texas, No. 18 Oklahoma State) and won four conference series against teams in the Top-25.

For the second time in four years, the Kansas baseball team participated in the NCAA Tournament. KU earned a No. 3 seed in the NCAA Chapel Hill region, which also featured host North Carolina as the No. 1 seed, Coastal Carolina as the No. 2 seed and Dartmouth as the No. 4 seed.

Kansas fell to No. 15 Coastal Carolina on the opening day of the tournament, but scored a 16-0 win in an elimination game against Dartmouth. KU stayed alive for a rematch with Coastal Carolina for the right to go to the region championship.

Junior pitcher Cameron Selik held the Chanticleers to just one run over 6 2/3 innings, while Tony Thompson hit his 20th home run of the season to break the game open in the seventh inning as Kansas won 5-1.

However, knocking off host and No. 4 North Carolina proved to be too tall of a task as Kansas was eliminated, 12-1 in the region final.

2014 AT A GLANCE

Voted to finish last in the Big 12, the Jayhawks set out to prove doubters wrong. Rattling off a quick 12-1 start to the season, the squad opened the eyes of the college baseball world.

From the 12-1 start, to the first road-series victory against Texas since 1996, to the nine-game conference win streak that included a sweep of then-No. 19 Texas Tech, it seemed the Jayhawks were determined to make the postseason. After suffering two quick losses in the Big 12 Championship, the team was sent back to Lawrence hoping its season would be extended.

Their hopes came true when the Jayhawks were selected to the Louisville regional along with the host team Louisville, Kentucky and Kent State.

Game one pitted the Kansas squad against Kentucky and National Player of the Year A.J. Reed. From start to finish, the game lasted six hours and 36 minutes, with a total of three hours and 22 minutes of weather delays, but in the end the Jayhawks outlasted the rain and the Wildcats, 10-6.

Playing No. 1 Louisville in the second game proved to be too much for the Jayhawks. After the marathon of game one, the team committed three errors and the hosts took advantage of the mistakes and beat Kansas, 6-3.

Facing elimination from the postseason, Kansas matched up with the Wildcats again, hoping to repeat the result of game one. Falling behind 8-0 after the first five and a half innings, the Jayhawks showed the fight they had shown all season and put up five runs in the bottom half of the sixth. Preventing Kentucky from adding to its run total the rest of the game and adding another run of its own in the eighth with a solo-shot from senior catcher Ka'iana Eldredge, the squad went into the bottom of the ninth needing two runs to extend its season another inning and three runs to extend it another game. Unable to scratch a run across the plate, the magical season ended.

The Jayhawks finished 35-26 on the year, and while no one wants to end the season with a loss, the team made memories and added itself to the Kansas baseball history books.

2025 AT A GLANCE

Kansas made it to the NCAA Tournament for the first time in 11 years as the Jayhawks put together one of their most impressive seasons in school history. KU finished its season with an overall record of 43-17 and a 20-10 mark in conference play. Head coach Dan Fitzgerald won Big 12 Coach of the Year, the first in program history.

Entering the Fayetteville Regional, Kansas was the only team in the country with at least 43 overall wins, 20 conference wins and 20 true road wins. The 43 wins for Kansas were tied for the second most in school history and the most under Fitzgerald, in his third season leading the program.

Kansas finished with 42 regular season wins, the most in a regular season in school history. The 20 wins in conference games were also the most in school history. Kansas had a school record 26 come-from-behind victories and a program record 20 road wins in 2025. Kansas recorded eight series sweeps this season and five in Big 12 play, both program bests. When Kansas was ranked No. 22 by the NCBWA on March 17, it was the first ranking for KU since the 2014 season.

Hoglund Ballpark was electric all season as Kansas debuted a new video board and turf. KU set a new attendance record with a sellout crowd of 2,660 fans on March 28 vs. Oklahoma State.

Kansas was dedicated to the home run in 2025 with 104 homers to set a new school record. The Jayhawks tied an NCAA record with five consecutive home runs in the third inning at Minnesota on March 12. It was the fourth occasion in NCAA Division I history, and the first by a Big 12 program, that a team has done so, with the last being South Carolina at Georgia in 2006. The five home runs marked a new program record for the most home runs in an inning.

Brady Ballinger and Jackson Hauge each were key parts of the offense and were named All-Americans following the season. Brady Counsell also received a Rawlings Gold Glove Award, the first ever by a Kansas player.

Kansas started the Fayetteville Regional with a matchup against Creighton and was knotted up at 3-3 through five innings before Creighton poured on seven runs in the sixth inning to put the game out of reach.

Facing elimination, Kansas played North Dakota State the next day. Kansas trailed early but fought back to tie it at 2-2. North Dakota State stretched its lead to 4-2 and the Jayhawks were able to make it 4-3 but could never find the tying run. That ended the historic 2025 season.
